3/4 Time students (9-11 credits) – non-Pell recipients:	$ 450

Funds will automatically be disbursed to students who have a FAFSA on file, are enrolled in a Title IV eligible program of study, and satisfy all other eligibility requirements of the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund.

Students who do not have a 2020-2021 FAFSA on file at the time of the initial eligibility determination have been information on how to submit a FAFSA and will be considered for future disbursements.

Students were encouraged to sign up for direct deposit which allows for the funds to be quickly received. Students who do not opt for direct deposit will have checks mailed to their address on file with CSM.

Quarter 1 2022 Update: Additional CRRSA funds will be awarded to students who meet HEERF III eligibility guidelines, as unused HEERF II funds can be awarded using HEERF III guidelines.

6. Instructions, directions, or guidance provided by the institution to students concerning the Emergency Financial Aid Grants.

On April 15, 2021 all students registered for the Spring 2021 semester were sent the following email regarding CRRSA Act Funds:

Dear Hawk,

The Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations (CRRSA) Act was recently signed into law. We have been tasked by the U.S.

Department of Education with disbursing emergency funds to our students to help with expenses related to the continued disruption of campus operations due to the coronavirus outbreak.

Pursuant to federal guidelines, CSM is working to distribute funds to students deemed eligible by the U.S. Department of Education. In order to be eligible for CRRSA Act funds, students must be eligible to apply for federally-funded financial aid and be enrolled in at least one credit course in the Spring 2021 Semester.

As a student enrolled at CSM for the Spring 2021 Semester, you may be eligible to receive funds under the CRRSA Act. To be eligible to receive assistance under the CRRSA Act, a student must meet the following criteria:

*For best consideration to receive CRRSA Act funding, you are encouraged to complete a 2020-2021 FAFSA by April 30, 2021, if you have not previously applied for this academic year. If you have submitted your 2020-2021 FAFSA application, no further action is necessary at this time to be considered for aid through the CRRSA Act. Recipients will be notified by the college if they will be receiving funds.
